

ADHD Adult Presentation

Wednesday, November 20, 2019
7:00 – 9:00 pm

“How to Win Friends and Influence People!”

Presented by: Steve VerBurg, Dale Carnegie of Orange County

People with ADHD often have a hard time developing quality friends due to impulsivity and hyperactivity. Do you know how to use time-tested human relations principles to build stronger relationships and help enhance your social skills? Join us November 20 and take a positive step toward success now and throughout the rest of your life. We will examine how to ignite better relationships and understand the benefit of incremental improvement. We have programs for both Teens and Adults.

For the past 107 years Dale Carnegie has taught people “How to Win Friends and Influence People”. Steve VerBurg has lead Dale Carnegie of Orange County as President for the past 11 years. He has an Early Childhood Education background working with school districts, preschools, and private education facilities for over 12 years.
