“Decoding the Mystery of ADHD Motivation”

Presented by: Natalia van Rikxoort, MSW, ACC

“We’ve tried EVERYTHING to motivate our child and NOTHING seems to work!” Sound familiar? The relationship between ADHD and motivation is a complex one. Fatigue, overwhelm, boredom, and executive functioning difficulties, and self-criticism can all have a negative impact on your child’s ability to start and finish tasks.

Join us to learn how to decode the mystery of ADHD motivation and help get your child moving forward on the road to success.

About the presenter: Natalia van Rikxoort, MSW, ACC is a social worker and certified life coach with specializations in ADHD and family coaching. Her practice, Lotus Life Coaching Services, provides consultation and coaching services to adults, youth, and families impacted by ADHD and executive functioning challenges.

Natalia holds a BA degree in psychology and social behavior as well as a master’s degree in clinical social work with a specialization in children and families. Prior to becoming a coach, she dedicated over 10 years to serving clients in the mental health and social services fields.
